Work Experience

Fox Landscaping - Yorkville, Illinois

Owner: 2017-Present

At 14, I created my first business; A regional landscaping company. Since inception, I have organically grown this business to its current position including a portfolio of dozens of returning clients, multiple renewing large-scale projects, ~20 employees, and thousands in annual recurring revenue.

Y115 School District - Yorkville, Illinois

Tutor: 2018-2020

I am employed by my School District after school hours and during access periods. I travel to various schools throughout the district to mentor students of various subjects and grade levels. I have been both assigned students to work with and independently targeted and developed ongoing mentorship relationships with students in need.

Air Slate – Walnut Creek, California

Sales Development Representative: 2021

In the Summer following my freshmen year, I was employed by a B-to-B SaaS Startup called Air Slate, owned by PDF Filler. I am working as an SDR intern responsible for generating Outbound sales opportunities in the government sector.

Wimp2Warrior – San Jose, California

Research Intern: 2021

In the Summer following my freshmen year, I was employed by a startup in the fitness and martial arts space as the fourth employee in all North America. I worked with many high-profile influencers in the space to generate publicity. Also responsible for conducting market/competitive research.

Zinnia Health – New York City, New York (Remote)

Financial Analyst: 2021

In the Summer following my freshmen year, I was primarily employed by an emerging health-services company where I specialized in the financial sector, creating and managing financial models. I was mentored and taught daily about private equity and its applications in the healthcare industry.

Wrestlers In Business Network - Palo Alto, California

Chairperson/Stanford Representative: 2021

Also, In the Summer following my freshmen year, I began my role as my school's representative for the wrestlers in business network. I was also fortunate to become chairperson and secretary of the newly formed Northern California Wrestlers in Business Network where I am responsible for logistics and events.
